Invest in providing health and hope to children

You are invited to partner with the Four Winds Invitational 2022, an Epson Tour Event, benefiting our region's only comprehensive children's hospital, Beacon Children's Hospital. Starting August 8, professional women golfers from around the world, spectators, business leaders and volunteers will join forces to enhance the health and well-being of our community's children. The Four Winds Invitational is a one-of-a-kind premier event that takes place at South Bend Country Club, 25800 Country Club Dr., South Bend, Indiana.

The Four Winds Invitational offers several attractive partnership opportunities, with an array of signature events spanning seven days and appealing to diverse audiences. It is the perfect way to invest in our community's children while reinforcing your brand image in front of thousands of community members.

Show your customers and your community that you support our region's only Children's Hospital – become a partner with the Four Winds Invitational today.
